

IFFR
ITALIAN SECTION

Sponsored by:

Associazione Italiana di Aeronautica e Astronautica (AIDAA) – Sezione Lombarda
Dipartimento di Ingegneria Aerospaziale del Politecnico di Milano
European Seaplane Pilots Association (ESPA)

The Italian Section of the International Fellowship of Flying Rotarians (IFFR) and the Aero Club Como announce an International Symposium:

“Water flying in Europe: a dream or a true chance?”

3rd June 2005

Centro Culturale Italo-Tedesco Villa Vigoni - Lovenno di Menaggio

Program:

Ore 14.30:

Welcome Remarks

Giorgio Aletti, President of IFFR Italian Section

Cesare Baj, President of Aero Club Como

Angus Clark, IFFR World President and Chairman of the Symposium

Ore 14.45:

Elmar Wilczek, Wilmavia

“Water flying in Europe: a revival and a challenge”

Ore 15.30:

Cesare Baj, Aero Club Como & ESPA

“Seaplanes on Lake Como: 75 years of uninterrupted operations, a strong commitment in promoting water flying all over Europe”

Ore 16.00:

Chip Erwin, Czech Aircraft Works

“Water flying in Europe from the point of view of a constructor”

Ore 16.30:

Coffee break

Ore 17.00:

Peter R. Berry, FlyStMoritz

“Seaplane ops: providing the monday morning tools”

Ore 17.20:

Sergio Barlocchetti, Rivista Volare

“Italy: a country with a plenty of sea shores and a handful of seaplanes. ULM flying: a mean to boost sport, tourism and social services”

Ore 17.40:

Giovanni Gatti, Avioshop

“Seaplane races: a legacy of the past, a perspective for the future”

Ore 18.00

General Discussion